

Abby London

"Philadelphia-suburbs luxury children's party magician"

Based in Lansdale | Comedy Magic | Kids & Family

Biography

Abby London has been "a professional entertainer since 1997" - 29 years of shows - and what she brings is not a standard birthday magic set but an all-inclusive luxury variety show. Talking animals, puppetry and family-friendly comedy sit alongside magic that delights children and adults alike, with plenty of live audience participation.

Abby arrives at the house and transforms the room into a private theater with a velvet luxury backdrop, supplying everything the show needs: no table, outlet or equipment required from the host. Balloon twisting, face painting and party games are part of the package, and themed versions range from talking dinosaurs to Princess, Pirate and Halloween shows. With 91 five-star Google reviews, she serves Montgomery, Bucks, Chester and Delaware Counties and the surrounding Philadelphia suburbs.
