"Magician's magician, cards and mentalism"

Based in Philadelphia | Close-Up Magic | Mentalism | Stage Magic

Biography

Adam Elbaum has studied the art of magic and mentalism for over 30 years, and is known among fellow performers as a "magician's magician" - sought out as a lecturer and as a consultant for some of the world's most well known performers.

His speciality is cards, mind-reading, metal bending and levitations, worked at close quarters so guests are left puzzling over what they saw long after the night ends: one client still wants to know how a ring floated off a woman's finger. Adam performs either as an intimate show or as a mysterious attendee who mingles with guests, and his small close-up miracles suit holiday parties, corporate events and milestone birthdays, where hosts report hearing about nothing but the magician afterwards.
