

Alan Rorrison

"British close-up creator and magic consultant"

Close-Up Magic

Biography

Alan Rorrison is a British magician and magic creator known within the specialist magic community for close-up material, card work and consultancy. A current Penguin Magic creator page supports his identity and continuing connection to marketed magic releases. That evidence is enough for a factual FindMagic profile tied to his Fool Us appearance, but it does not establish a current public performance schedule or availability for private bookings. Website, contact and home-base fields should remain unfilled until first-party evidence is found.
