

Alana

"Award-winning German stage manipulation magician"

Based in Hamburg | Stage Magic

Biography

Alana is an award-winning German magician whose stage work centers on precise manipulation and an elegant visual presentation. Her official biography notes her Hamburg upbringing, major German magic honors and television appearances, including Penn & Teller: Fool Us. The site presents a self-contained stage act and provides a booking-request pathway for live engagements. Because being born and raised in Hamburg does not prove a current professional base, FindMagic should leave her home city blank unless she or her representatives confirm it.
