

Alex Jay Hamm

"Corporate and wedding close-up magician"

Based in Winnipeg | Close-Up Magic | Corporate Events | Kids & Family | Parlour Magic

Biography

Alex Jay Hamm is a corporate magician whose show is sophisticated, fun, impossible and intriguing - close-up magic that unfolds mere inches away, in the guests' own hands. He has performed for Randy Fenoli, host of TV's "Say yes to the dress", who agrees the magic makes an ideal ice-breaker during pre-reception drinks and while photos are being taken.

At weddings Alex works the tables, adapting his style so that guests from the youngest to the oldest are entertained, and leaving them talking for weeks afterwards. His stage show suits corporate events, holiday parties and gala dinners as after-dinner entertainment, while his parlour show blends stage material with close-up repertoire for smaller rooms. He also works trade show floors, drawing meaningful traffic to an exhibit, always with a clean and professional demeanour.
