

Ali Cook

"British comedy magic, escapology and mentalism"

Close-Up Magic | Comedy Magic | Mentalism | Stage Illusion

Biography

Ali Cook is a British magician whose repertoire spans comedy magic, close-up sleight of hand, escapology, mentalism and larger stage illusion. His official website documents that range and provides a direct enquiry address, supporting an active profile and booking pathway even though its current gigs page lists no dates. Cook's broad practice is best represented with several evidence-backed specialties rather than a single generic magician label. The site does not clearly state a current home city, so that field remains open.
