

Allen Abbott

"Fool Us magician with a performer-owned reel"

Stage Magic

Biography

Allen Abbott is a magician whose performance is documented in the Fool Us ledger and in a performer-owned Vimeo reel. The reel links to allenabbottmagic.com and a dedicated contact page, giving useful historical evidence for his professional web identity. During this research pass, however, the linked website could not be verified as currently reachable, and no independent first-party source established present booking availability, specialties beyond the recorded performance, or a home base. The profile should therefore remain factual and deliberately sparse.
