

Allen Roy Oshiro

"Award-winning comedy magician"

Close-Up Magic | Comedy Magic | Corporate Events

Biography

Award-winning magician Allen Roy Oshiro builds his shows around comedy, illusion, and audience participation, tailoring each performance to the room in front of him. Guests might meet him inches away for close-up magic during cocktail hour, or watch stage illusions land for an audience of hundreds.

The material stays clean, positive, and suitable for the whole family, so children and adults are laughing at the same moments. Allen works weddings, receptions and rehearsal dinners, company parties, holiday events, client appreciation nights and conferences, as well as birthday parties, school functions, festivals, churches and community gatherings, with packages shaped around the audience, venue and schedule.
