

Anastasia Synn

"Cyborg magician blending stunts and biohacking"

Stage Magic

Biography

Anastasia Synn is a magician, stunt performer and biohacker whose current official brand is the Cyborg Magician. Her work combines theatrical magic with technology, body modification and transhumanist themes, creating a distinctive performance identity beyond conventional illusion. The official site includes biography, video, press and contact sections and connects cleanly to the Fool Us performer. A contact route exists, but the site evidence gathered here does not explicitly say that she currently accepts private or corporate bookings, so that field remains unknown.
