

Andrew Kelly

"Close-up magician seen on 'Ellen'"

Close-Up Magic

Biography

Andrew Kelly specialises in close-up magic, performed with borrowed items such as rings, mobile phones and money as readily as with a deck of cards. His magic has seen him perform on the American daytime television show 'Ellen' in Los Angeles, drawing 4.5 million views on YouTube alone, and live on 'The Today Show' in New York.

His style is relaxed and easy-going, built on nothing more than a deck of cards, some coins and a sense of humour: a wedding ring that vanishes and reappears on his car keys, or an envelope containing a prediction of the person a guest was quietly thinking of. In huge demand in the UK, he has also taken bookings in Florida, Ibiza, Miami, Russia, Norway, Portugal, The Bahamas, Iceland and Italy, and performs at weddings throughout the year.
