"Award-winning comedy magician and Wonka impersonator"

Based in New York | Close-Up Magic | Comedy Magic | Corporate Events | Kids & Family

Biography

Award-winning comedy magician Andy Wonka is a nationally recognized corporate magician, family entertainer and chocolatier - and the official Willy Wonka impersonator for the Gene Wilder Estate, with a Gene Wilder look alike resemblance to match.

His high-energy, interactive shows blend clean stand-up comedy, unforgettable magic and a signature chocolate experience, with walk-around magic among the guests and routines built from a newspaper and a bottle of Gatorade. Mentored by legendary magician Jeff McBride, he has appeared on America's Got Talent, NBC, ABC and ESPN, and was named Official Fan of the Game by the New York Yankees. He performs at conferences, corporate events, music festivals, schools, universities, theaters and private celebrations nationwide.
