

Angus Baskerville

"Warwickshire based wedding and party magician"

Based in Stratford-upon-Avon | Corporate Events

Biography

Angus Baskerville is a Warwickshire based magician who shapes his magic around the occasion, mingling among guests, making visits to banquet tables, or stepping up for cabaret and stage shows, whichever suits the room best.

His work covers weddings, private birthday parties and celebrations, promotions and corporate functions of all types, from drinks receptions where the magic happens inches from the guests to seated dinners between courses. The aim is straightforward: to give everyone at the event a magical experience they will never forget, and to add entertainment that makes a wedding reception, a company function or a milestone celebration feel more memorable long after the evening ends.
