

Anthony Charles Heads

"Mentalist & paranormal illusionist"

Based in Stockholm | Mentalism | Stage Illusion

Biography

Mentalist and paranormal illusionist Anthony Charles Heads counts himself among the few people in the world who practise and refine mentalism. His work blends genuine psychology, scientifically grounded theories of thought processes and a little mental misdirection, so the astonishment arrives through the mind rather than through props.

Away from the stage he is a magic consultant to stage, TV and digital media, and has created bespoke illusions, routines and effects for over 17 years - a maker's grounding that shows in how precisely each piece lands. Once or twice a year he also gathers people for a Secret Evening, trying new ideas out on real audiences. The close, conversational scale of the work suits galas, weddings, corporate gatherings and private celebrations.
