Biography

Anthony Dempsey is a professional magician and mentalist whose official site documents his Penn & Teller: Fool Us appearance and promotes tailored trade-show entertainment. His programs combine magic, mind reading, clean improvisational comedy and audience participation, with formats suitable for booths, strolling receptions and stage presentations. The site actively requests event details and quotes and describes work for corporate and private audiences. Third-party listings disagree on his Texas city, so this export leaves the home city unresolved rather than selecting Dallas or Houston.
