

Arron Jones

"Edinburgh Fringe comedy magician"

Close-Up Magic

Biography

Arron Jones is a magician who builds his own material rather than leaning on familiar tricks, blending theatre, music and comedy into immersive shows that leave audiences laughing as much as puzzling. A charismatic stage presence and quick wit carry the room, and the surprises keep coming until the final moment.

He has stormed the Edinburgh Fringe Festival and spent twelve years performing close-up magic, so the act scales from a large seated audience to a small gathering where the magic happens inches from the guests. That range makes Arron a natural fit for weddings, galas, company parties and intimate private celebrations, where his mix of comedy and astonishment tends to leave people wanting more.
