

Artem Shchukin

"World-champion visual manipulation and pantomime magician"

Based in Paris | Comedy Magic | Stage Magic

Biography

Artem Shchukin is a Russian visual magician and world-champion manipulation performer whose work blends pantomime, comedy, theatre and technically precise object production. Specialist coverage connects the performer billed as Artem on Penn & Teller: Fool Us to Shchukin and points to his official Instagram account, while FISM's official results corroborate the full name and championship record. Recent international appearances support an active career. Research did not locate a performer-owned website or explicit booking channel, so those fields remain unresolved.
