

Ben Young

"Clean comedy magic for corporate and family audiences"

Based in Nashville | Close-Up Magic | Comedy Magic | Corporate Events | Kids & Family

Biography

Ben Young is a clean comedy magician and mind reader who performs for corporate, private and family audiences. His official site credits Penn & Teller: Fool Us, major Las Vegas casinos and extensive tours for United States military communities. Available formats include close-up magic, a one-man stage show, family programs, team building and keynotes, with worldwide travel and an active booking route. The same official domain contains conflicting Nashville and Las Vegas base language, so FindMagic should review location before assigning a city.
