"Chicago comedy magic with high-energy audience participation"

Based in Chicago | Close-Up Magic | Comedy Magic | Corporate Events | Stage Magic

Biography

Bill Cook is a Chicago magician whose live work mixes comedy, drama, music and active audience participation. His official biography records performances around the world, national television appearances including Penn & Teller: Fool Us and current work with Masters of Illusion. Cook promotes polished entertainment for corporate and private audiences as well as larger stages, and his video page explicitly positions him in Chicago. The site provides a direct booking email and phone number, supporting an active, bookable profile with both close-up and stage discovery tags.
