

Brad Henderson

"Austin magician, hypnotist and mind reader"

Based in Austin | Close-Up Magic | Corporate Events | Mentalism | Virtual Shows

Biography

Sleight-of-hand artist, hypnotist and mind reader Brad Henderson is based in Austin, Texas, and has traveled the world sharing his unique approach to the magical arts. Where others are content to amuse, his goal is to make audiences feel - an emotional journey through surprise, awe, shock and wonder.

For small groups he offers hospitality-style magic, or The Soirée for the truly discerning; guests never forget the moment magic happens in their own hands. Larger gatherings get the mentalism of The Mind Show, or The Amazing Humans Hypnosis Show, which leaves the room rolling in the aisles. Presentations are customized for special occasions and trade shows, and Brad performs for clients throughout the United States. He also performs virtual and Zoom magic shows.
