

Brett Oddly

"Award-winning escape artist and magician"

Mentalism

Biography

Award-winning performer Brett Oddly is an escape artist, magician, juggler and stuntman, and one of Central Canada's top variety artists. His blend of magic, juggling, sideshow and escapes fills 60 minutes with plenty of humour and audience participation, and the danger is real enough to keep a room leaning forward.

Audiences can find him at his regular sold out show at the basement, Speakeasy magic, at his solo freak magic show Precarious Endangerment, or at the family friendly This Calls for Danger. In Daredevils of Deception he shares the stage with mentalist Patrick Gregoire, where vaudeville-inspired escapes and pain defying feats meet mind reading and psychological influence. It is a show built to travel well to events of every kind.
