

Casshan Wallace

"Ohio visual magic creator known professionally as Cash"

Based in Warren | Close-Up Magic

Biography

Cash is the professional name of Casshan Wallace, an Ohio magician and creator whose work emphasizes visual close-up and card magic. A substantial Penguin Magic lecture identifies Wallace and repeatedly uses Cash as his familiar name, describing an active creator whose social ideas led to consulting and television opportunities. A self-authored professional profile connects the full name to Cash Magic Entertainment and Warren, Ohio. Research did not locate a dependable current performer website or public event-booking route, and another secondary source misspells the first name, so identity normalization requires review.
