

Chad Allen

"Close-up magician and advocate changing perceptions"

Based in Hollywood | Close-Up Magic | Corporate Events | Stage Magic

Biography

Chad Allen is a close-up magician, multidisciplinary artist and advocate whose work challenges assumptions about blindness and performance. His official site documents Penn & Teller: Fool Us, the Magic Castle and live formats ranging from strolling close-up to intimate theatre. It also offers public speaking and advocacy for corporate events, conferences, podcasts, television and other media. Allen's profile should foreground both polished interactive magic and his perspective as a blind artist, while avoiding medical speculation. The site supports active enquiries but does not clearly state a current home city or direct booking email.
