Biography

Chris Canfield is a Los Angeles-area magician, musician, technology innovator and speaker known for a single-handed approach to magic. Born without a right hand, he adapted established techniques to his own abilities and became a regular Magic Castle performer and Strolling Showdown winner before appearing on Penn & Teller: Fool Us. Canfield also creates interactive theatre, including The Games We Play, and speaks about creativity and problem solving. His official biography publishes a direct contact email and explicitly states his Los Angeles-area residence.
