

Christian Engblom

"Award-winning Finnish magician, fooled Penn & Teller"

Biography

Named magician of the year and internationally awarded, Christian Engblom develops his own tricks - material strong enough to make fellow magicians briefly believe in magic. He is the only Finn to have fooled Penn & Teller on their hugely popular television show "Fool Us", and David Blaine has sought and received his consultation for effects seen in the star's TV specials.

With more than 30 years of experience, Christian centres his show on wonders and the astonishment that rises from them, using secrets that have demonstrably fooled anyone - even other magicians - and leaving guests with laughter and stories long after the applause. His strolling close-up magic moves from table to table and group to group, bringing miracles within touching distance, while the stage show suits occasions where the whole party is entertained at once.
