

Christine Barger & Darlene Hollywood

"Ventriloquism and mischievous puppet mind reading"

Based in Anaheim | Comedy Magic | Kids & Family | Mentalism

Biography

Christine Barger-Lutes is an Anaheim ventriloquist, actor and content creator who performs with Darlene Hollywood, a wooden puppet character with a confident, mischievous personality. Their Penn & Teller: Fool Us act presented Darlene as a mentalist, combining ventriloquism, comedy and magic. Barger's official site shows the partnership, her Magic Castle membership and a direct contact email, while a current regional arts profile confirms Anaheim and the expanded surname. Darlene should be modeled as a puppet character within the act, not as a separate human performer.
