

Christopher Williams

"Songwriters in the Round host, singer-songwriter"

Biography

Christopher Williams is a singer-songwriter equally at home hosting a Songwriters in the Round and playing a solo set of his own. He has shared those rounds with Jon Foreman from Switchfoot, Katy Nichole and Shelby Patterson, and with Josiah Queen, Mike Donehey from 10th Avenue North and Rachel DeLong.

Much of his year is spent in rooms small enough to hear every word: intimate house concerts, the Community Concert Hall on the campus of Ft Lewis College, a men's retreat where he handles the music, and a benefit evening of stories and songs for Young Life in Africa. With the Rabbit Room he travelled to the UK for a songwriter in the round concert with Andrew Peterson and friends, plus a songwriting workshop and one on the Book of Joel.
