

Clive Hayward

"Seattle corporate close-up magician"

Based in Seattle | Close-Up Magic | Corporate Events

Biography

Clive Hayward works at guest level rather than from a stage - moving table to table with cards, coins and everyday objects through cocktail hours and receptions, with no mic, no setup and no production tail.

The material is crowd-tested for noisy rooms, moving groups and guests who don't know each other yet, and adjusts to the event instead of running a canned set - one guest called it "pure Sorcery". Formats run from strolling magic to a magic station or feature show, with a planned moment around the honoree, executive or couple when the day calls for it. Clive has performed from Seattle to Las Vegas, and works corporate events, trade shows, weddings and holiday parties across Seattle, Bellevue, Redmond, Kirkland and the greater Puget Sound.
