

Compagnie des Dragonfly

"French theatrical illusion shaped by technology and fantasy"

Stage Illusion | Stage Magic

Biography

Compagnie des Dragonfly, also presented as Les Dragonfly, is a French theatrical illusion company associated with Géraldine and Pierre Fleury-Le Gros. Its official site documents Penn & Teller: Fool Us, French television, theatres, festivals, corporate clients and large public productions, with an active enquiry form and current trailers. The company's work combines grand illusion with story, multimedia, lasers and imagined worlds rather than stand-alone close-up tricks. Research supports France at country level, but no reliable current home city for the performers should be inferred from venue references.
