

Dan Paulus

"Utah comedy magician"

Close-Up Magic | Comedy Magic | Corporate Events

Biography

Comedy magician Dan Paulus turns a company or private party into a laugh filled magic event, with shows scaled for groups of 5, 50 or 500.

His close-up strolling magic happens right under guests' noses, often in their own hands, as it did at The Fear Factory in Salt Lake City; on stage, in the ballroom or at the park, everyone is involved in the fun whether they volunteer on stage or stay seated in the audience. One host reported an employee who laughed so hard her cheeks were hurting. An hour of strolling magic also makes a strong prelude to the stage show, a pairing that suits corporate events, Christmas parties and private celebrations.
