

Dania Díaz

"Story-driven card magic with heart and purpose"

Close-Up Magic | Kids & Family | Stage Magic

Biography

Dania Díaz is a Venezuelan illusionist and storyteller whose performances use card magic to turn personal experience into emotionally resonant theatre. Her official site documents a Penn & Teller: Fool Us success, current performances of La Maga in Madrid, customized card stories for corporate messages, intimate magic and the family production AbracaDania. Díaz offers a direct booking email and enquiry form and remains active in Spain and internationally. Madrid is a verified show market, but the site does not explicitly establish it as her current residence, so home city remains open.
