

Daniel Jaspersen

"Denver corporate magician and mentalist"

Based in Denver | Close-Up Magic | Corporate Events | Mentalism

Biography

A corporate magician and mentalist based in the Denver Metro area, Daniel Jaspersen has been on stage since he was seven years old - starting in theater, spending years as a juggler, and landing in magic over 20 years ago. His approach is relaxed and modern, casually disarming, built for adult audiences and worked with cards, coins, cash, billets and other borrowed items from the group.

Guests might meet him during strolling close-up magic at a cocktail hour or reception, gather around a table for an hour-long show for 10-30 VIP guests, or watch a 70-minute after-dinner set loaded with his playful mind-reading style. He has performed for Fortune 500 companies, universities, fundraisers, non-profits, leadership retreats, weddings and private parties.
