

David Jowers

"Savannah close-up and stage magician"

Based in Savannah | Close-Up Magic | Corporate Events

Biography

Based in Savannah, Georgia, David Jowers Magic brings together world-class close-up magic and powerful stage performances, with both walk around magic and stage shows on offer depending on the room.

Diners and guests tend to describe the experience in the same way: one called the table-side set "the highlight of the night", another simply "mind blowing". The act has earned hundreds of five-star Google reviews, and David performs regularly in Charleston, South Carolina and throughout the Southeast, working luxury weddings, major corporate events, and private celebrations.
