Based in Los Angeles | Close-Up Magic | Kids & Family | Mentalism | Parlour Magic

Biography

Enter a world where time bends, thoughts are revealed, and ordinary objects behave in impossible ways with David Minkin, International Champion of Close-Up Magic. Performing just inches from his audience, David combines exceptional sleight of hand with compelling personal stories, transforming each illusion into an intimate and meaningful theatrical experience.

A Gold Medal recipient at the Magic Castle, David has appeared as a co-star of Travel Channel's Magic Outlaws and in the acclaimed documentary Magicians: Life in the Impossible. His sophisticated, engaging performances have entertained audiences at public shows, private celebrations, and corporate events for major international brands. More than a display of skill, David Minkin's magic invites audiences to rediscover wonder-and experience the impossible from only a few feet away.
