

David Ranalli

"Magician, mentalist and keynote speaker"

Close-Up Magic | Corporate Events | Mentalism

Biography

Magician, mentalist and hypnotist David Ranalli mixes sleight of hand, impossible mind-reading and sarcastic humour into shows featured at corporate and celebrity events around the world. He started magic at 13 after meeting David Copperfield backstage, and attended Southern Illinois University on scholarships from the Society of American Magicians, majoring in Speech Communication and Philosophy.

Whether guests join him on stage or take part from their seats, David makes them the real stars of the show, and his latest stage show is playing in sold-out theaters. He works rooms of 20 or 2000, mingling with close-up magic at VIP receptions or holding a full theatre stage, and his keynote blends storytelling and interactive mind reading for conferences, company parties and leadership programmes.
