

Dimitri

"Award-winning magician and mentalist"

Based in Buenos Aires | Close-Up Magic

Biography

Award-winning magician Dimitri combines magic and humour in a participative show that provokes incredible reactions. He took second place at the Latin American Championship of Magic and sixth at the World Championship of Magic in South Korea in 2018, and in 2019 he appeared at the Edinburgh Fringe, the largest arts festival in the world.

Born in Ukraine and raised in Israel, Dimitri has lived in Argentina since 2012 and has taken his show to more than 30 countries in five languages. Since 2024 he has presented his one-man show 'Magia en el Cielo' at the emblematic Palacio Barolo. At receptions his close-up magic moves from group to group with tricks that are funny and interactive, work for which Argentina's most demanding clients and most prestigious companies call on him.
