"Interactive mind reading from a candid psychic skeptic"

Based in New York | Corporate Events | Mentalism | Stage Magic

Biography

Dustin Dean is an Upstate New York mentalist and magician whose interactive shows combine apparent mind reading with an explicit psychic-skeptic perspective. His official site documents more than a decade of professional work, viral videos and television appearances, and offers tailored programs for corporations, colleges, schools, weddings and private events. Dean explains his effects as entertainment built from real-world techniques rather than supernatural powers. A direct email and phone support active bookings, while the site identifies a region rather than a specific home city.
