

Dyna Staats

"Las Vegas science magic with theatrical mischief"

Based in Las Vegas | Stage Magic

Biography

Dyna Staats is a Las Vegas magician whose theatrical science-magic character combines elaborate props, comic danger and a steampunk-inspired laboratory aesthetic. A specialist interview establishes that she is the same performer previously billed on Fool Us as Dyno Staats and documents her distinction as the only magician to appear on the series both before and after transition. Her current self-authored profile uses Dyna Staats and The Science Goblin. No reliable booking page or standalone official website was found, and the duplicate ledger identities require consolidation before import.
