

Erik The Magician

"Comedy magician for weddings and parties"

Close-Up Magic | Comedy Magic | Corporate Events

Biography

Erik The Magician mixes comedy, mystery and sleight of hand into an act that works a room rather than simply performing at it. A repeat corporate client praises "the perfect mix of comedy, mystery, intelligence, and magic" and thanks him for the buzz he leaves behind at networking events. He is one of Portland Party Works and Wild Bill's go-to magicians, and he has taught Will Forte a trick or two.

The magic suits weddings, where it gets guests talking, laughing and leaning in, corporate parties that need loosening up, and holiday or themed gatherings performed right in the living room. Kids' birthday parties are the one booking he turns down, saving those for his own children. Given the right venue, he also appears as the Ace of Blades, the world's only rollerblading magician.
