

Evan Northrup

"Salem storytelling magic and thoughtful illusion design"

Based in Salem | Close-Up Magic | Stage Magic

Biography

Evan Northrup is a Salem, Massachusetts magician and illusion designer whose work combines storytelling with sleight of hand to highlight the extraordinary within ordinary life. The Peabody Essex Museum presented him in a continuing gallery-performance series, and Boston Magic Lab identifies him as a professional magician, producer and theatrical consultant. His 2025 Fool Us appearance featured an original routine. The evidence supports an active regional creative practice, but no reliable performer-owned website, direct booking contact or general event-service menu was found.
