

Félix Bodden

"Dominican visual close-up magic and inventive card artistry"

Close-Up Magic

Biography

Félix Bodden is a Dominican illusionist, close-up magician and creator known for visual card and banknote effects. A detailed national profile describes his full-time magic career, Fool Us appearance and work from the Dominican Republic, while a current specialist catalogue preserves his creator activity. In 2025 he returned to Dominicana's Got Talent in a two-person mentalism performance, confirming continued public work. The strongest sources support the Dominican Republic but not a current home city, and no reliable performer-owned website, direct booking contact or explicit current event menu was found.
