

Franco Pascali

"Magic Castle Award-Winning Card Magician"

Based in Los Angeles | Close-Up Magic

Biography

Franco Pascali is a Los Angeles magician, mentalist and cardist known for starring in The Magic Show at The Hollywood Roosevelt, an intimate hidden-theatre production centered on close-up magic and mind reading. He is also a theory11 artist whose work focuses heavily on sleight of hand, card magic and cardistry.

Pascali began practicing magic seriously as a teenager and became a member of The Magic Castle at 15. In 2018, the Academy of Magical Arts named him a recipient of its Junior Achievement Award. Beyond performing, Pascali creates original magic and playing-card projects, bringing a contemporary approach to technically demanding card work and highly visual sleight of hand.
