

Frédéric Da Silva

"Las Vegas mind-reading magician"

Based in Las Vegas | Comedy Magic | Mentalism

Biography

Frédéric Da Silva is the mind reader behind Paranormal, the afternoon show billed as the number one magic show in Las Vegas. It plays at Bally's in a theatre small enough that, as guests report, there is no bad seat - close quarters for an hour-plus of mind reading, with trick after trick in such variety that audiences give up trying to work out the method.

Frédéric is funny and enthusiastic company, drawing volunteers in and showing them the power of their own minds rather than performing at them. Skeptics leave still wondering how he did it. He stays behind after every performance for a meet and greet, guessing the number each person is thinking of - and getting them right. A warm, interactive act for Las Vegas visitors and for private and corporate audiences who want mentalism up close.
