

Garrett Thomas

"Inventive close-up magic from a masterful creative consultant"

Based in Chicago | Close-Up Magic

Biography

Garrett Thomas is an internationally respected close-up magician, inventor and consultant known for original sleight of hand and deeply considered magical construction. His official site documents consulting for David Blaine since 2003, a Fool Us trophy and decades of work in Western New York. In 2026 he announced a move to Chicago and a resident engagement at The Hand & The Eye, while remaining available for selected larger Western New York events. Thomas offers formal close-up shows, weddings, corporate work, lectures, lessons and virtual programs through a direct official enquiry route.
