

George Stanton

"George performs close-up magic, his specialties being that of card magic and mentalism."

Biography

George Stanton strives to provide high quality entertainment in the form of jaw dropping magic that is centered around intimate spectator interaction. George performs close-up magic, his specialties being that of card magic and mentalism. His style of performance is extremely unique and not often seen in today's world of magic performances. His magic creates moments of raw emotion and unforgettable experiences for every audience he performs for. Magic is for everybody regardless of race, religion, language, age, gender, sexual orientation, financial status, political beliefs, etc. There is no divide. "Magic Unites Everybody," is a photo series George created showcasing his diverse audiences coming together for the purpose of magic. As a result of the 2020 Pandemic, George developed a virtual show that is done over Zoom allowing him to take his talents to a global scale and entertain audiences all over the world. The virtual show is completely interactive and aims to provide the same sort of intimacy and experience as an in person performance would. George also offers high quality merchandise. Support the brand and represent it all across the world!
