

HARA

"America's Got Talent winner, illusionist"

Stage Magic

Biography

HARA is the stage name of Japanese illusionist and illusion designer Hiroki Hara. His official site offers large-scale theatre and corporate shows, digital and hologram illusion, traditional Japanese Wazuma, product reveals, workshops, speaking and creative direction for events in Japan and abroad. Hara's career includes international television, a World Magic Seminar youth title, projection-mapping and hologram consulting and a 2023 Fool Us appearance. Current performer and agency pages confirm continued 2026 activity and direct show enquiries. Sources establish his Nara origin but not a dependable present home city, so the profile should list Japan only.
