Biography

Comedian and magician Harrison Greenbaum won the Andy Kaufman Award (2010) for creativity and originality in comedy, was named one of Comedy Central's "Comics to Watch," and has been called "the hardest-working man in comedy" by both Time Out New York and the NY Daily News.

For nearly two years he starred in Cirque du Soleil's Mad Apple in Las Vegas as the first stand-up comedian ever to headline a Cirque du Soleil show, playing a record-setting 650 shows at the NY-NY Hotel & Casino. Millions have seen him on America's Got Talent, Last Comic Standing and Conan, and he has served as warm-up comic for The Daily Show. Now back in New York, his solo Off-Broadway show mixes stand-up and magic into what amNewYork called "a gut-busting, jaw-dropping theatrical rollercoaster ride."
