"German Brain Magic combining mentalism, science and polished hosting"

Mentalism | Stage Magic

Biography

Harry Keaton is a German mentalist, magician and professional moderator whose Brain Magic programs connect illusion with perception, neuroscience and audience participation. His official site promotes live theatre appearances and tailored corporate work, while current references document customized magic and hosting for major organizations. Keaton has appeared twice on Penn & Teller: Fool Us and won a trophy on his later performance. A direct email and enquiry form support active bookings for shows, events and moderation in Germany and internationally. The strongest sources do not identify one dependable current home city.
