

Héctor Mancha

"World-champion Spanish magic across cards, shadows and pickpocketing"

Based in Madrid | Close-Up Magic | Parlour Magic | Stage Magic

Biography

Héctor Mancha is a Madrid-based Spanish magician and multidisciplinary artist specializing in card magic, parlour work, theatrical pickpocketing, shadow theatre, manipulation and improvisation. His official site records national and international championship honors, provides ticketing and representation contacts and presents a deliberately playful artistic voice. Spain's national magic federation documents competition results through 2026 across manipulation, parlour, invention and card categories, confirming continued professional activity after his Fool Us trophy. Mancha performs theatre and festival programs, close-up and lecture work in Spain and internationally through named artistic representation.
