

Hector Ruiz

"Spanish visual illusion and heartfelt storytelling for global stages"

Close-Up Magic | Stage Illusion | Stage Magic

Biography

Hector Ruiz is a Spanish illusionist previously billed as Hector and Hector is Magic. His official site reconciles those identities and documents performances in more than fifty countries, with work in theatres, major cruise ships, television and international touring productions including The Illusionists. Ruiz's shows combine large-scale illusion, innovative visual effects, humor and personal storytelling, while his 2017 Fool Us appearance used intimate shadow magic and a borrowed ring. A current official contact form supports performance enquiries. The evidence identifies Spain as his origin and professional base country but not a current home city.
