

Helen Coghlan

"Australian escapology and precision-engineered illusion."

Based in Gold Coast | Stage Magic

Biography

Helen Coghlan is an Australian magician and escapologist from the Gold Coast, performing within the family magic tradition established by her father, Arthur Coghlan. Their official site documents her historic completion of Houdini's Water Torture Escape, original illusion apparatus and a record six successful appearances on Penn & Teller: Fool Us. Coghlan's work combines physical escape, mechanical invention and direct, confident stage presentation. The performer-controlled site supports an active Australian profile and show enquiries, although it does not expose a clearly indexed direct booking email or a detailed list of current private-event formats.
